

Lights!

McCorristin students shine in many ways. They help brighten the lives of others spiritually, academically, and athletically.

Camera!

By following the guidance of the faculty, McCorristin students provide a Christian example for those around them.

Action!

The varied sports, clubs, and other activities allow students to become involved in the community of McCorristin High School.

"All the world's a stage, and we are merely players" is a great quote by Shakespeare which holds very true for us seniors as we prepare for our performance in the world after graduation. The past four years have prepared us for this role. From minor parts as freshmen, we have grown to be the actors and actresses with leading roles as seniors. With graduation upon us, now is a good time to remember "The Way We Were".

Remember the very first day at McCorristin High School? The new friends as well as the new fears? It was the first chance the girls had to find out what G.A.A. really was. The boys learned of the ups and downs of sports. They learned to face defeat on the scoreboard, but they knew that they were really #1. We all adjusted to lunch at 10:30, quick changes after gym, as well as the confusion of Algebra I and IPS.

Junior year was the time to buckle down. We all became more concerned about the future and what it held for us. With one year of high school left, we started to actually make some decisions about college and our future careers. No matter what decisions were made, we were sure that the Class of '83 would "let the magic last", "Always and Forever" as the Junior Prom proved.

Down Life's Road

The early morning sun has emerged out of the black shroud, calling for the runner to approach the starting line. Each dawn this race begins down Life's Road, but only one runner participates. The start of the race is signified by the cry of an infant, and he crawls on his hands and knees gradually rising to his feet. The runner participates before he even walks; Just as the sun progresses across the sky, his steps become strides. The pace he has set is a mile a year. And the journey he traveled is now seventeen miles long. The memories of his journey and the lessons he has learned He will carry with him til his race is over at the road's end. The distance he has traveled is small compared to the journey that lies ahead. As the road gets longer, the journey may get rougher, and there will be times he may fall; but, as he has done in the past, He will get up and continue. He has not yet seen the yellow ribbon under the setting sun, because for him his journey has really just begun.
